TO THE

QUEEN's

Most Excellent Majesty,

BIBLIOTHECA BODLEIANA

The Humble PETITION of

HUGH SPEKE, Esq;

Most Humbly Sheweth,

THAT Your Petitioner's Sufferings are in some measure set forth in his annexed Printed CASE, and that your Petitioner's Services were also set forth in his small Treatise of Memoirs of the most Remarkable Passages and Transactions on the late Revolution in 1688. before and after the Landing of the then Prince of Orange, after our most Glorious King WILLIAM; and from thence continued on, with the greatest Success, against his most Christian Majesty, by the good Conduct, Wise and Prudent Management of Your Most Gracious Majesty. Whom God long Preserve and Defend.

That your Petitioner shall suddenly publish a far Larger Addition to his late Treatise of Memoirs, Printed at Dublin in the Year 1709, which was presented to Your Majesty by the late Duke of Queensbury, Deceased.

Wherefore Your Petitioner most humbly implores Your most Gracious Majesty, to Recommend this his annexed Printed Case to Your Honourable House of Commons, that they may do therein whatever they shall judge proper and fitting.

And Your Petitioner shall ever Pray, &c.

HUGH SPEKE.
